↓ On-call general practitioners and medical centres

Call 116-117 to get in touch with an on-call general practitioner who will guide you towards :

- > General practitioners on duty in daytime (standard consultation rates)
- > La Maison Médicale (114, rue Jules Siegfried, 76600 Le Havre) on weekdays, between 8 pm and 12 am, and on weekends and bank holidays (increased consultation rates)
- > Emergency Medical Services (SAMU) in case of emergency.

In case of emergency, dial 15 (emergency number) on your phone to get in touch with the Emergency Medical Services

↓ On-call pharmacies

On Sundays and bank holidays, on-call pharmacies are open to everyone. Medical prescriptions are not required.

www.3237.fr website.

For further, please visit the \(http://www.3237.fr/\)

At night, on-call pharmacies remain closed, except in case of emergency. To find an on-call pharmacy, you need to go to the Central Police Station (196, boulevard de Strasbourg, 76600 Le Havre). The police will notify the pharmacy of your arrival and give you the address.

To find an on-call pharmacy, you can also call 118 418 and say "ordonnance" (premium rates apply).

↓ Emergency Medical Services

> Contact your general practitioner first

If and when medical practices are closed :

> Call 116-117 to get in touch with an on-call general practitioner

- On weekdays, from 8 pm to 8 am
- On weekends
- On bank holidays

> You will then be able to :

- Receive medical advice
- Be referred to a general practitioner on duty or an on-call medical centre
- Be taken care of by the Emergency Medical Services (SAMU) without delay, if necessary

- > In case of emergency, dial 15 (emergency number) on your phone to get in touch with the Emergency Medical Services (SAMU)

↓ The primary health insurance fund (CPAM)

The CPAM of Le Havre carries out, at the beginning of each year, a consultation on access to student rights. It also offers vaccination or screening sessions. With the UC-IRSA (Union of Caisses of the Inter-Regional Institute for Health) the CPAM offers a complete health examination, free and adapted to 16-25 year olds. All Le Havre students, particularly international students, because one of the doctors speaks English, can have access to this exam.
